

EDITORIAL*EDITORIAL*Dear Reader,

Firstly, I extend my warm greetings to you. I would also like to add that our journal is under the review to get indexed under Scopus and Elsevier society of indexing. Being an open access journal we offer instant access to works published in the journal for scholars to refer and reach out for further communication and there by thrive a better culture for cooperation.

As we are aware that medical science is on the road of constant threats from emerging diseases, platforms to communicate finding becomes essential. The recent incidents of Zika Virus infections are a livid reminder of the importance of quest for new drugs. Judicial use of existing therapy should also be of prime importance in order to avoid drug resistance.

The globalization and industrialization are the key cause in the advancement of threatful diseases throughout the world. More and more research needs to be conduct to combat the upcoming situations. IRJPS will always targets to provide the information of the quality research which will initiate many more researchers to carry forward those works to inner detail.

Happy Reading.....
